Winner—Ch. g. by Linden—Merci.
Start good. Won easily; second handily. Lydian was best. It was his first out. He probably has class. The Dipper is a strong finisher. Isabey is a slow beginner. He will improve. Watch him. He had a stormy passage. Lee was off badly and took the long route. He finished very strong and was very unlucky. Blue Beard was probably short. He showed much speed on the turn. The field was badly strung out at the finish. Cavatina bolted. Laurel Leaf showed some speed.
Scratched—Glorian, 104.

*Coupled in betting.
Winner—B. h. 5, by Hanover—Deet.
Start straggling. Won driving. A strong wind stopped the pacemakers in the stretch. All Over was probably the best. He performed far over the notch. The race was run to suit Sir Play. The weight told on him. The Swain and Lambert settled each other. Imperator was too much used. He looked a certain winner at the sixteenth. Lambert and Play dislike a route. Brandywine and Alarum were off badly. Brandywine sulks. Connoisseur is in good shape. He was poorly handled and is not quite ready.
Scratched—Agitator, 129; Cassette, 114; Illusion, 110; Domitor, 114; Albert S, 113; Knight of the Garter, 108; Rifle, 105.

Winner—Ch. c. by Hanover—Keepsake.
Start good. Won driving. Bowling Brook was best at the weights. He seems high class. The colt came again very strong in stretch after being apparently beaten on the turn. Handball was the best seasoned. He again finished straight and game. Varus was choked first part and quit last sixteenth. Great Bend had a stormy passage and took the long route. He finished fast. Kitefoot ran her race. That's her size. Handpress, merely a pacemaker, finished close up.

GOOD RACING AT JOLIET.

Saturday's good card at Ingalls' Park got out a big crowd. It was nearly 5,000 strong. The going was a trifle soft but the racing was good to see and up to the notch.

It was a poor day for favorites, only two, Cherry Bounce II and Cossack, scoring.

Cherry Bounce II was perhaps the best thing on the card and the ring lost heavily to it. The Morello colt beat his kinsman Morello colt, Richard J, who was ridden by a stable boy. He could hardly ever do it again.

John Bremock landed a race with Uncas, second with Weala and St. Brandon, and third with Hessville.

St. Brandon was the choice but went lame after going a mile and was beaten by Phil Becker. The latter fences well for a novice and will make a timber-topper of fair class.

The racing at Ingalls closes with Tuesday. Forsythe opens the first of three fifteen day meetings upon the Indiana tracks next Thursday. The purses will average over $1600 per day. Roby and Sheffield follow with similar racing terms.

SUBURBAN PROBABILITIES.

The Coney Island Jockey Club meeting, always the most intelligently built of the high class Jockey Club racing terms, opens next Tuesday, to run twelve days, closing with July 10. Two classics are run on the first day. They are The Suburban and Double Event. The former is sharply in the public eye. It is the fourteenth Suburban and worth $7500, $8000 to the winner, and at 11 miles. There will not be a large field for the 1897 Suburban. The probabilities are twenty in number and the probability a field of less than ten.

Spring handicap possibilities, on a liberal basis average less than fifty per cent. The twenty Suburban possibilities are:

Requital	Clifford
Flying Dutchman	Belmar
The Winner	First Mate
Semper Ego	Ogden
Volley	Ben Brush
Halma	Dutch Skater
Peep o' Day	King Arthur II
Sir Walter	Lake Shore
Howard Mann	Havoc
Roundsman	Maurice

Of the twenty above, Requital, Ogden, Halma, Peep o' Day and Howard Mann are extremely doubtful starters. For his Brooklyn Handicap win Mann gets a twelve pound penalty.

There is a second division of doubtful starters, made up of Roundsman, Maurice, Clifford and First Mate.

As the news applying to the doings of the horses goes, the suburban's field will come from the following list:

Horses	Age	Wt.	Owners	Prob.	Jockeys
Halma (5)	120	Fleischmann & Son	L. Reiff
Maurice (5)	107	W M Barrick	Perkins
Roundsman (4)	109	J A Bennett	Hamilt'n
First Mate (4)	119	Bromley & Co.	Scherrer
Semper Ego (4)	106	Bromley & Co.	Hennessy
Volley (4)	97	W C Daly	O'Connor
FL Dutchman (5)	121	Pat Dunne	or Taral

Ben Brush (4) 123 M F Dwyer Simms
Dutch Skater (6) 108 W Jennings H Martin
King Arthur II (4) 98 J R Keene Maher
Sir Walter (7) 115 Oneck Stable Doggett
Lake Shore (6) 104 F L Parker Thorpe
Clifford (7) 126 R L Rose Littlefield
Havoc (5) 102 R Boyle H Lewis
Belmar (5) 121 G E Smith Sloan
The Winner (4) 115 G E Smith Hamilt'n

Flying Dutchman has a great chance. He is good and has class of the sharpest kind. Ben Brush, if as good as he seems to be, will be a stout contender. Clifford, if Mr. Rogers starts him, will be a factor, too. The Keenes like King Arthur's chances. The reason is strictly Keenesque. The Chicago stable of Bromley & Co. think well of its candidates. Dutch Skater has an outside chance. He has shown some class and the ability to crack in the sections of a handicap route in sprinting style. Such ability is needed to win such a race. So has Lake Shore. Volley has an unmistakable outside chance. He is rated lower than he is and is in light. The public discounts class in the Bill Daly stable and puts a premium on Marcus Daly's candidates. Thus horses are judged by owners. Havoc might scramble in among the leaders, too, weighted as he is.

Ben Brush will probably be the favorite, should he start, with the Smith entry and Clifford second choice. The probable result is an open one, better to be estimated when the field is known.

The Suburban of next Tuesday is the fourteenth. Its tabled history follows:

Yr.	Winner	Wgt.	Jockey	Time	Trk.
1884	Gen. Monroe	124	W Donahue	2:11 1/4	Fr
1885	Pontiac	102	Onley	2:09 1/4	Fr
1886	Troubadour	115	Fitzpatrick	2:12	Fr
1887	Eurus	102	Davis	2:12	Fr
1888	Elkwood	119	Martin	2:07 1/4	Fr

1895	Lazzarone	115	Hamilton	2:07	Fr
1896	H. of Navarre	129	Griffin	2:07	Fr

The Double Event, at five and a half furlongs, is worth $5,000. Its keenest contenders should come from the following lot: Great Bend, Firearm, Briar Sweet, Handball, Frohman, Varus, George Keene, Previous, Kitefoot and Hamburg, with the latter as the public favorite.

Winner—B. g. 4, by Pontico—Verosa.
Post 1 minute. Start good. Won cleverly. It was a hard fight for the place. Uncas was the best and had clear sailing. Jersey Lad met with hard luck again. He was off poorly and interfered with by Joe Mancini while trying to get up on the far turn. Mancini ran a game race. Magnusson drove him hard last three furlongs. Warren Point ran a good race. So did Tony Honing after he got in his stride. Teeta May is a jade. She works well but races nowhere near it.
Scratched—Barnato, 95.
Overweights—Belle of Niles, 3 pounds; Jersey Lad, 3; Uncas, 3.

9057 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. Purse $300. 2-year-olds. Selling.

Winner—B. c. by Morello—Clarissa.
Post 1 minute. Start good for all but Richard J. Won hand ridden; second and third driving. Cherry Bounce II was the best, but will not beat Richard J again. The latter is ready now and can win his next. Bonito and The Cheat were killed off by the early hot pace. Hosi finished strong. He was perhaps outclassed.

9058 THIRD RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $250. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

(8840)	MARY NOLAN	99	7	7	7	7	7	R Armstrong	T E Barrett	30	100	30	100

Winner—B. g. a, by Muscovy—Interest.
Post 1 minute. Start fair. Won in a long hard drive of two; next three also hard at it. Bozeman rode a perfect race on Cossack. He nursed him well the first half and never used his whip until necessary. His Brother would have won in another jump. He is a good horse right now. Floreanna was cut off on far turn. The pace was too hot for Cora Havill. She was wabbling all over in the last sixteenth. Throw Fon Schway's race out. He can do better and will.
Scratched—Glenmoyne, 103.

Winner—B. h. 5, by Lelaps—Crescent.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving; next three driving also. Dorsey rode a beautiful race on La Crescent. Admetus was probably the best. Thompson rode a miserable race. Admetus is very heavy headed though. Hessville had a lot of speed but it was used at the wrong time. Unity never got going until the stretch turn. Hamlin was shut off on the back stretch.

Winner—Ch. f. 4, by Terra Cotta—Mamie B.
Post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third also under full sail. Terramie was lucky. Dorsey got her through a small hole on the far turn. Weola was nowhere near herself. Caywood rode her hard all the way. Dejure ran a good race. Southworth got a vile ride. The boy almost pulled his head off trying to place him on the back stretch. Glenoid was also poorly handled, but ran a good race.
Scratched—Tramp, 103; Lottie, 99; Lady Maud, 99; Lon Jones, 101.
Overweights—Weola, 3 pounds; Lady Dixon, 3^h.

Time. 2:24.

Winner—Ch. g. 5, by Culprit—Miss Dawson.
Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won handily after an early drive; second under punishment; third easily. St. Brandon went lame. That accounts for his defeat. He was none too well ridden. Phil Becker swerved badly in the stretch. He interfered with no one though. Mr. Dayton was a bad horse. Proverb was none too good.
Scratched—Del Coronado, 125; Repeater, 144.
Overweights—Mr. Dayton, 3 pounds.
